QUINTA MAZATLAN

The urban sanctuary works to enrich people's lives by sharing knowledge about birds, plants and environmental stewardship in South Texas.

Summer Evenings in the Park

You're invited to sponsor a series of Thursday evening programs reaching over 1,000 families in the summertime. The series kicks-off with a grand concert in the park in June!

THE GOAL

When children and families are given opportunities to explore the natural world, they experience joy and pleasure which can lead to lifelong changes. The nature center offers parents a safe surrounding with organized programs to help the entire family connect to nature.

We invite families to kick-off the summer by attending a large concert in the park followed by programs every Thursday evening from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm.
